NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Notice is hereby given that the School Board of School District No. 114 of Umatilla County, Oregon, will receive sealed bids for the erection of a school house and necessary out-buildings in said school district. Plans and specifications of said buildings may be seen at the office of the County School Superintendent. All bidders will be required to deposit a certified check equal to 5 per cent of the bid submitted, said check to be forfeited to the district by the successful bidder in the event that he does not sign a contract to erect said buildings as per bid, otherwise the check shall be returned to the contractor.

The successful bidder, before beginning work on said buildings, shall give a bond of one thousand ($1000) dollars guaranteeing completion of said buildings according to the plans and specifications within a time stipulated by said School Board.

A meeting of the Board will be in the office of County School Supt. I. E. Young on Wednesday, September 23, 1914, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of opening the bids and awarding the contract for the erection of said buildings, provided that any bid is accepted by the Board.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

By order of the Board,
W. R. WYRICK, Chairman
CHAS. TULLOCH, Clerk.

HOGS AT PORTLAND REACH A LOW PRICE

SOUTH OMAHA QUOTES NICKEL ABOVE NORTH PORTLAND YARDS YESTERDAY.

(Courtesy Thursday's Journal) PORTLAND, Ore.—Portland was today the lowest of the group of representative hog markets in the country, when the former lowest market, South Omaha, advanced with the better demand.

Tops were selling this morning in the local yards at $8.40, or the same as yesterday's low figures. Killers, after their successful raid on the market here, during which they succeeded in ruining Portland's reputation as a high priced hog market, were not willing to allow the price to follow the movement elsewhere.

There was only a small run of hogs in the yards this morning, therefore pressure did not come from this source.

General hog market range:
Best light ..... $ 8.40
Medium light ..... 8.30
Good and heavy ..... 8.00@8.25
Rough and heavy ..... 7.00@7.50

Cattle Market is Holding.

While there was only a limited run of cattle in the North Portland yards overnight, additional supplies are expected among them. General conditions in the cattle trade here are rather steady with prices well maintained.

General cattle market range:
Select steers ..... $7.25@7.35
Good to prime ..... 6.85@7.10
Good to choice ..... 6.50@6.75

Ordinary to fair ..... 5.75@6.00
Fancy cows ..... 6.00
Good to prime ..... 5.75@5.90
Ordinary ..... 5.25@5.50
Select calves ..... 8.00@8.25
Heavy ..... 7.50
Fancy bulls ..... 4.50@4.75
Ordinary ..... 4.00@4.25

Mutton Situation Strong. Aside from the direct shipments to killers which were purchased by local butchers at country points, few mutton or lambs are now coming forward to the North Portland yards. Little stuff has been available for the market recently but this has found a very good call at full values for quality.

General mutton range:
Best yearlings ..... $5.35@5.50
Old wethers ..... 5.25@5.35
Best ewes ..... 4.35@4.50
Best east mountain lambs ..... 6.00
Valley light young lambs ..... 5.65@5.85
Heavy spring lambs ..... 5.00@5.50

CHICAGO CLOSING LOWER

CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Closing prices for wheat options yesterday reflected rather severe liquidation of long. Last prices were at a loss of 1 3/4 to 2c a bushel from Wednesday, with the opening of the market down 1-2c each for September and December and 1-4c for May.

Spot markets continue to show steadiness, and values were generally unchanged here and at Liverpool. Liverpool options started 1-2 to 1d higher. Broomhall cable from there that steadiness in America and firmer American indications and offers stimulated renewed firmness. There is a better general inquiry, and Canadian offers are very firm. Cargoes are steady, with arrivals off coast none, and the speculative demand is broadening.

Wheat. Sept.—Open, 108 1/2-1; high, 108 1/2-1; low, 107; close, 107 1/4. Dec.—Open, 111 1/4-1; high, 111 7/8-1; low, 109; close, 110. May.—Open, 118 1/2-1; high, 119; low, 116; close, 116 3/4 B.

(Courtesy Thursday's Journal) PORTLAND, Ore.—Little business is passing in the local grain trade at this time. Owing to the erratic trade in the trade abroad as well as in the east, local shipping interests are at sea regarding the values. In some quarters there are reports of purchases at interior points at lower prices but elsewhere the report is denied. Farmers are offering fairly free at some points but most of them are holding for full quotations.

Patent flour market continues mixed. Prices are being maintained by some mills at $5.50, others at $5.60 and still others at $5.40 for best grade. Export demand is still absent and leading interests report they have made no material sales for several weeks.

Hay market remains inactive with offerings far more liberal than demand with prices nominally the same as during recent weeks.

Clover seed—No. 1 re-cleaned, 15c; ordinary, 11 1/2-12c pound; alsike, 11c per pound.

Flour—Selling price: Patent $5.60 @ $5.80; Willamette valley, $5.40; local straight, $4.40; export, straight $4.40; cutoff, $4.20; bakers', $5 @ $5.40.

Hay—New crop, producers' price: Willamette valley timothy, fancy, $13; eastern Oregon-Idaho fancy timothy, $15; alfalfa, $12.50@13; vetch and oats, $9.50@10; clover, $8.50 per ton.

Grain bags—No. 1 Calcutta, $8.50. With the exception of an advance of 1-2c a bushel in the bids for forty-fold wheat, there was no change in quotations during the trading today on the Portland Merchants' Exchange.

Corn market showed strength with an advance of 1¢ in the bids for No. 1 feed prompt shipment although a sale for next month's delivery at $27.50 or an advance of $1.50 over previous bids. During the session 100 tons were sold at the advance.

Both feed and brewing barley showed unchanged prices with no sales on the exchange. Millstuffs were firmer with an advance of 75c a ton for bran and a similar amount for shorts.

Official Merchants' Exchange bid prices today:
